

MESA RIM CLIMBING CENTER

Description

Mesa Rim 2.0 Mission Valley is a 28,000 SF climbing facility with 26,000 SF climbing area. The main supports of the building have been built in reverse and are exposed to the outside, which creates a brace frame architectural effect. The structure has energy management and water harvesting systems for efficiency. The center features bouldering, belay walls, weights, yoga, and a team building event area.
